

BENDURA BANK
BENDURA BANK AG · LIECHTENSTEIN

(Senior) Relationship Manager South-East Europe 80-100% (f/m/d)

Would you like to work in an innovative and internationally oriented environment? Contribute your ideas and help shape the direction and growth of BENDURA BANK? Then you've come to the right place. We offer you the environment to develop yourself, your career and BENDURA BANK sustainably. Let's shape the future together.

YOUR CHALLENGE

- Building up your own portfolio in an experienced private banking team with additional support from internal departments
- Focus on the acquisition and expansion of long-term client relationships in the high net worth individual segment or intermediaries
- Development and extension of our presence in South-East Europe with focus on private clients
- Holistic, client-centred advice and support for high-end clients
- Travel activities, processing of client enquiries and personal support of our clients

YOUR BENEFITS

- First-class bank with high social benefits
- Opportunity to participate in the company
- Further training is financially supported by us
- Possibility to buy holidays
- In-house gym free of charge
- Free car parking facilities

YOUR PROFILE

- Many years of experience in private banking
- Experience in successfully building your own client book as well as a very good network in the respective target market
- Excellent investment and banking knowledge
- High level of persuasiveness and the ability to recognise customer needs and act in a solution-oriented manner
- Excellent knowledge of English as well as language skills in the target market. Language skills in German are a benefit

We look forward to receiving your detailed online application at: www.bendura.li/karriere. Schaaner Strasse 27, FL-9487 Gamprin-Bendern, T +423 265 55 44

Mr Daniel Willi, Head of Human Resources, will then be happy to provide you with further information in a personal interview.

www.bendura.li

TRANSFORMING COMPLEXITY INTO TAILOR-MADE SOLUTIONS